

Maggie Morris of Topeka Joins Moran's Washington, D.C. Office

TOPEKA - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that Maggie Morris of Topeka has joined his office in Washington, D.C., where she serves as scheduler and office manager.

"Maggie's previous work experience on and off Capitol Hill have made her a valuable addition to my staff," said Moran. "Her hard work and dedication to helping Kansans is appreciated."

Before joining Moran's office, Morris worked as a government relations assistant at Williams and Jensen, PLLC and served as a congressional intern in the U.S. Senate. She is a 2005 graduate of the University of Kansas, where she completed bachelors' degrees in journalism and American studies with an emphasis in political science. While at KU, Morris was a member of Chi Omega sorority and served as an ambassador for the university and Greek organizations.

"I am honored to be serving such a hard working legislator and on behalf of my fellow Kansans," said Morris.

Morris' responsibilities include scheduling events for Moran and overseeing administrative projects.

Maggie is the daughter of Michael and Beverly Morris of Topeka.

###